You will always miss 100% of the
shots that you
never take.

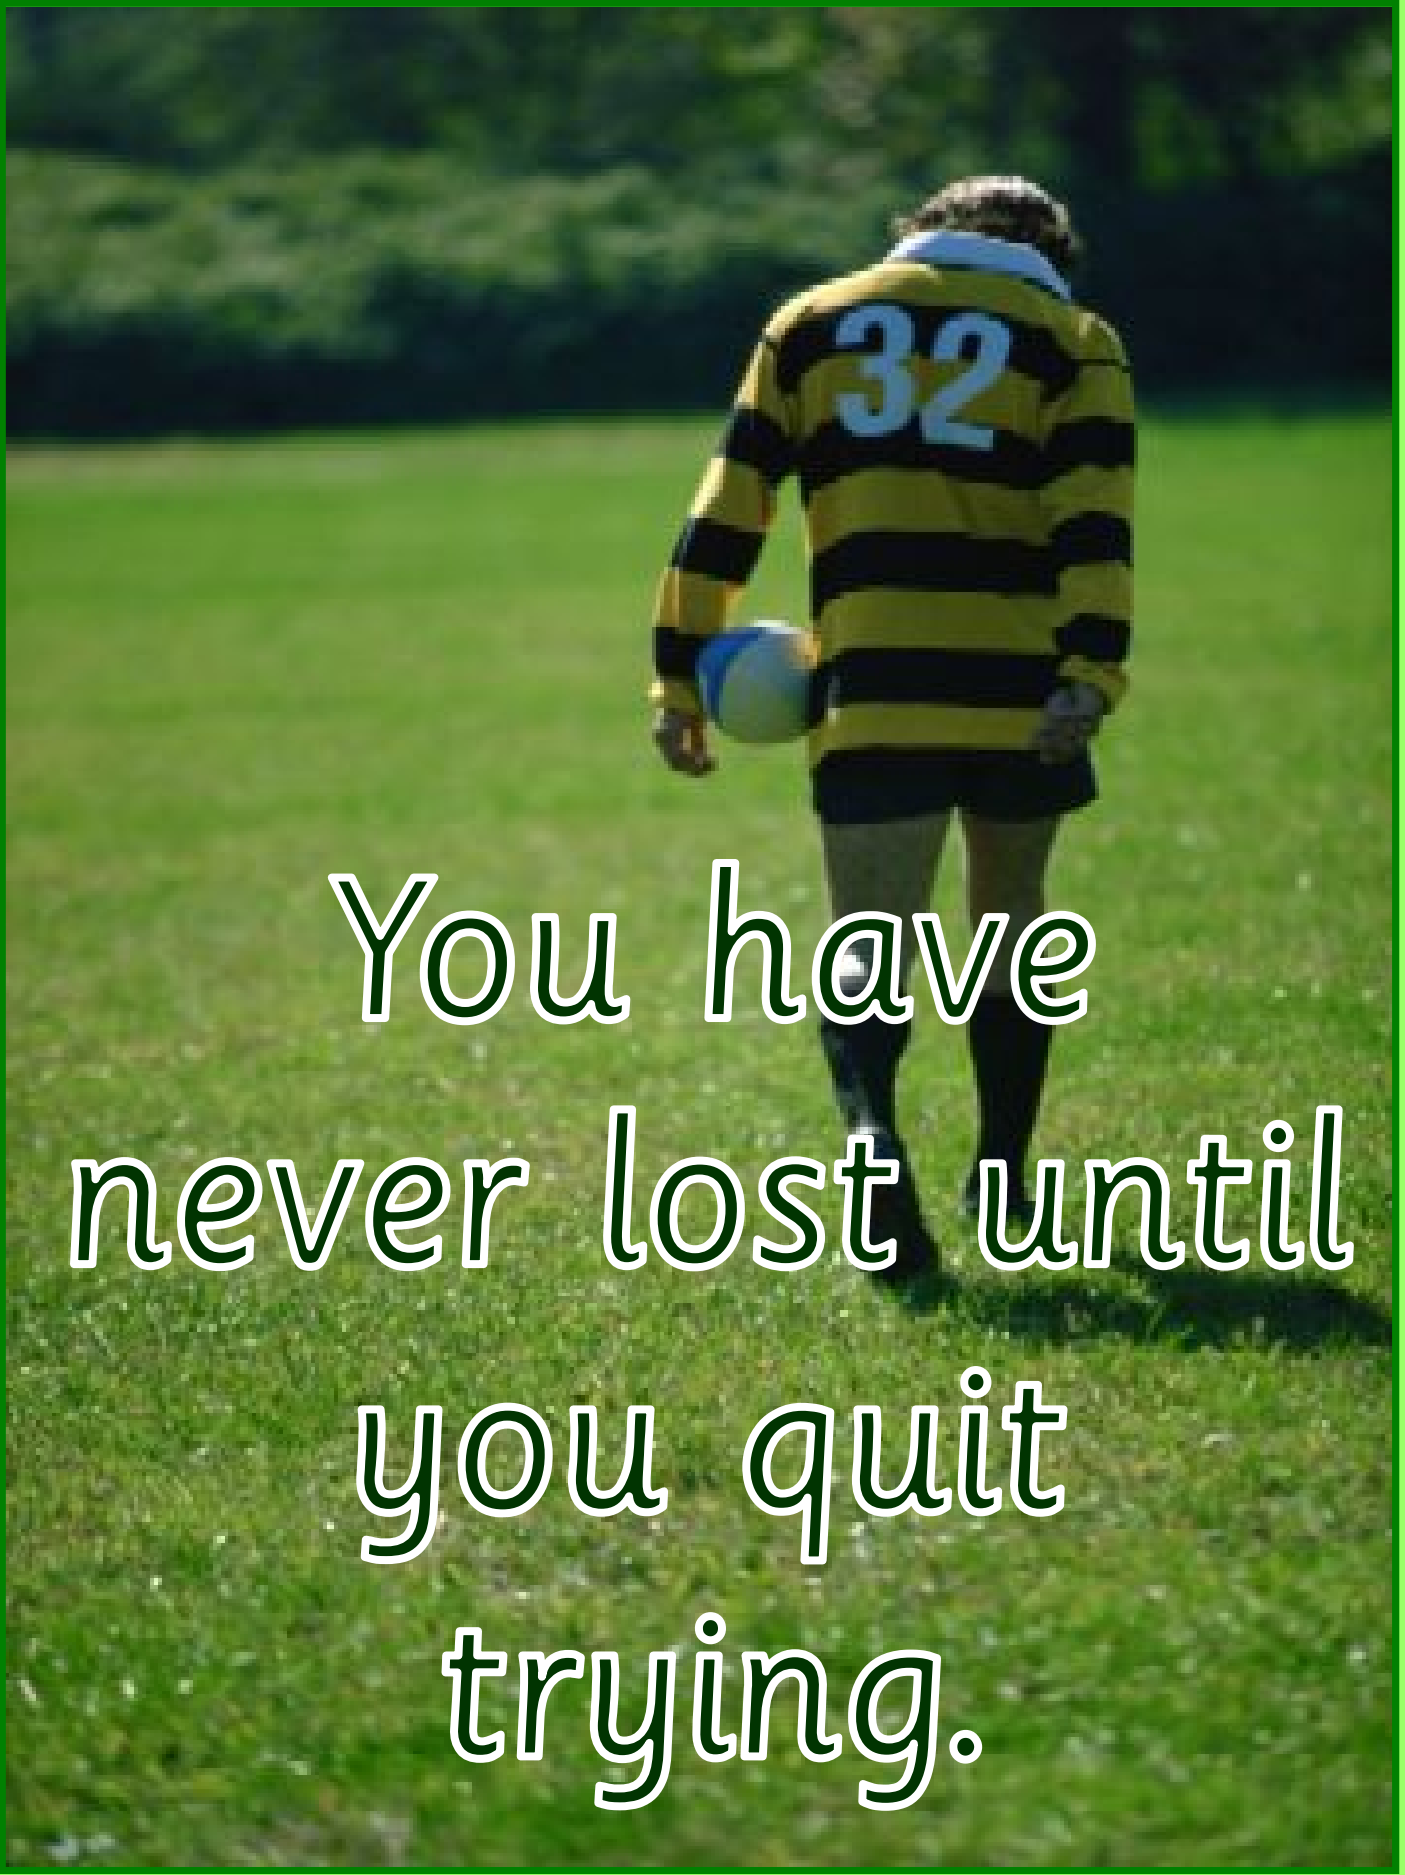

Wayne Gretzky

No one
can do
everything but
everyone
something.

A person in a dark suit is walking away from the camera on a wide, paved street. They are carrying a briefcase in their right hand. The street is empty except for them, and the background shows a set of stairs or a ramp. The image has a purple tint and is framed by a thick purple border.

Stand up for what is right - even if you stand
alone.

A person is seen from behind, walking away on a green grassy field. They are wearing a yellow and black horizontally striped soccer jersey with the number 32 in blue on the back. They are also wearing black shorts and black socks. In their right hand, they are holding a blue and white soccer ball. The background is a blurred line of green trees under bright sunlight. The entire image is framed by a thick green border.

You have never lost until
you quit
trying.

Tell me
and I forget;
show me
and I remember;

involve me
and I understand.

The background of the entire image is a solid dark blue. Overlaid on this is a large, semi-circular view of the Earth from space, showing swirling white clouds, blue oceans, and patches of green and brown land. To the right of the Earth, a large, detailed image of the Moon is visible, showing its craters and grey surface. The text is centered over the Earth portion of the image.

You really can change the world
if you
care enough.

Marion Wright Edelman

The time is always right
to do
what is right.

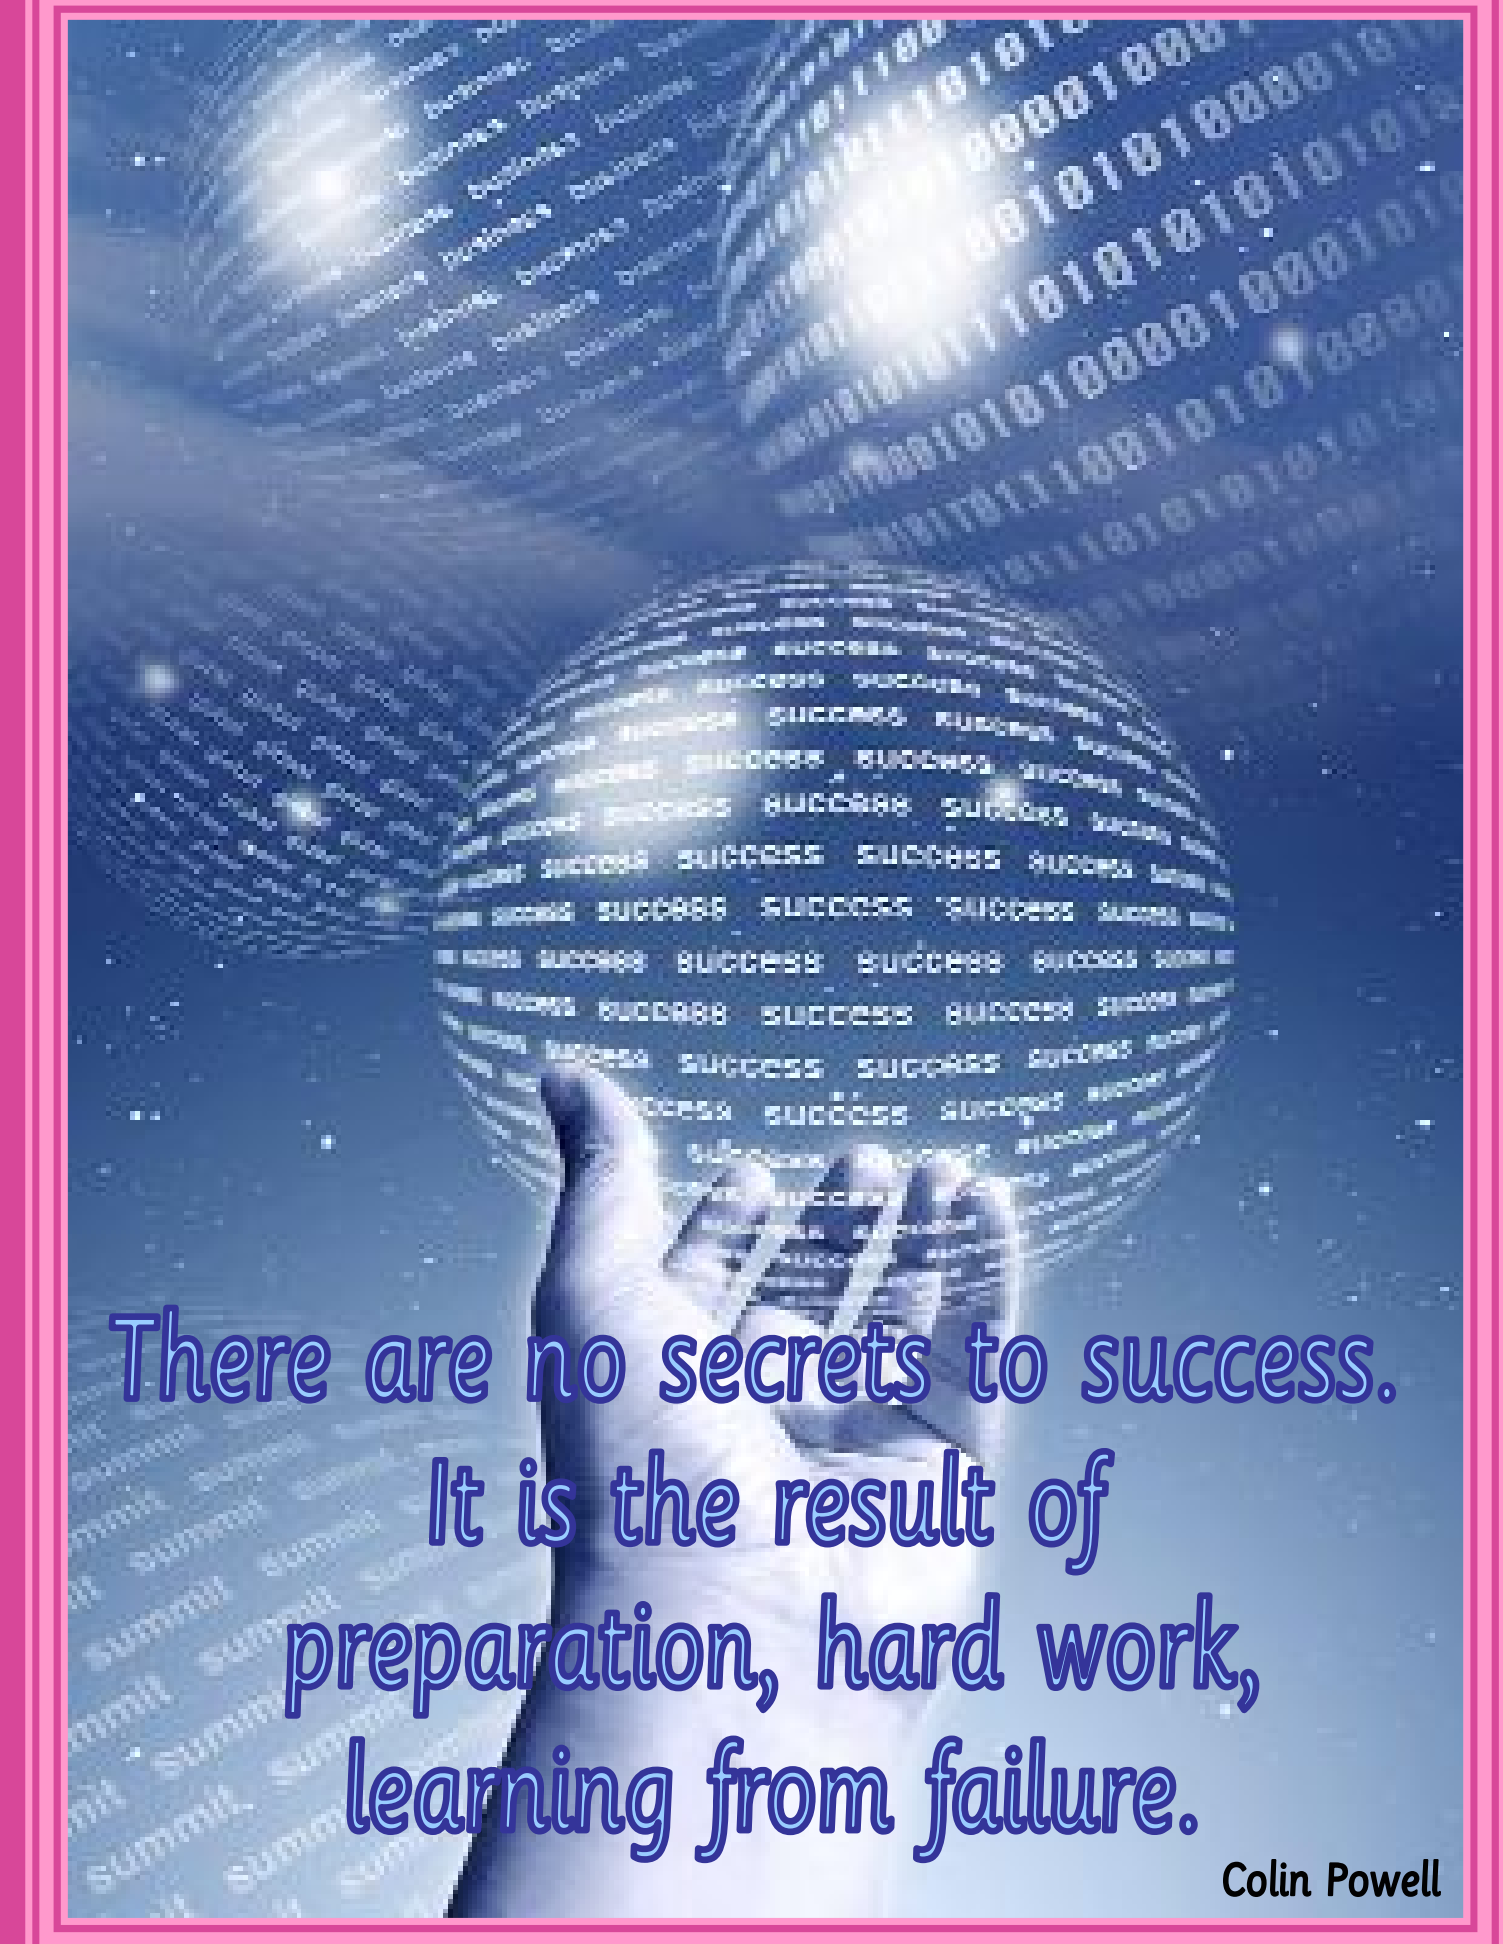

Martin Luther King Jr

Imagination
is more
important
than knowledge.

Einstein

The background image features a hand reaching upwards from the bottom center towards a glowing sphere. The sphere is composed of concentric rings of light, with the word 'SUCCESS' repeated many times in a circular pattern. The background is a deep blue with a pattern of binary code (0s and 1s) and the word 'SUCCESS' repeated diagonally. Two bright light sources at the top create a lens flare effect.

There are no secrets to success.
It is the result of preparation, hard work,
learning from failure.

Colin Powell

A background image showing a skateboarder in mid-air, performing a trick on a ramp. The skateboarder is wearing dark pants and white sneakers. The ramp is light-colored and curved. The entire image is framed by a thick red border.

Every day,
in every way,
I am getting
better and better.

Emile Coue

Have patience
with all things,
but chiefly
have patience
with yourself.

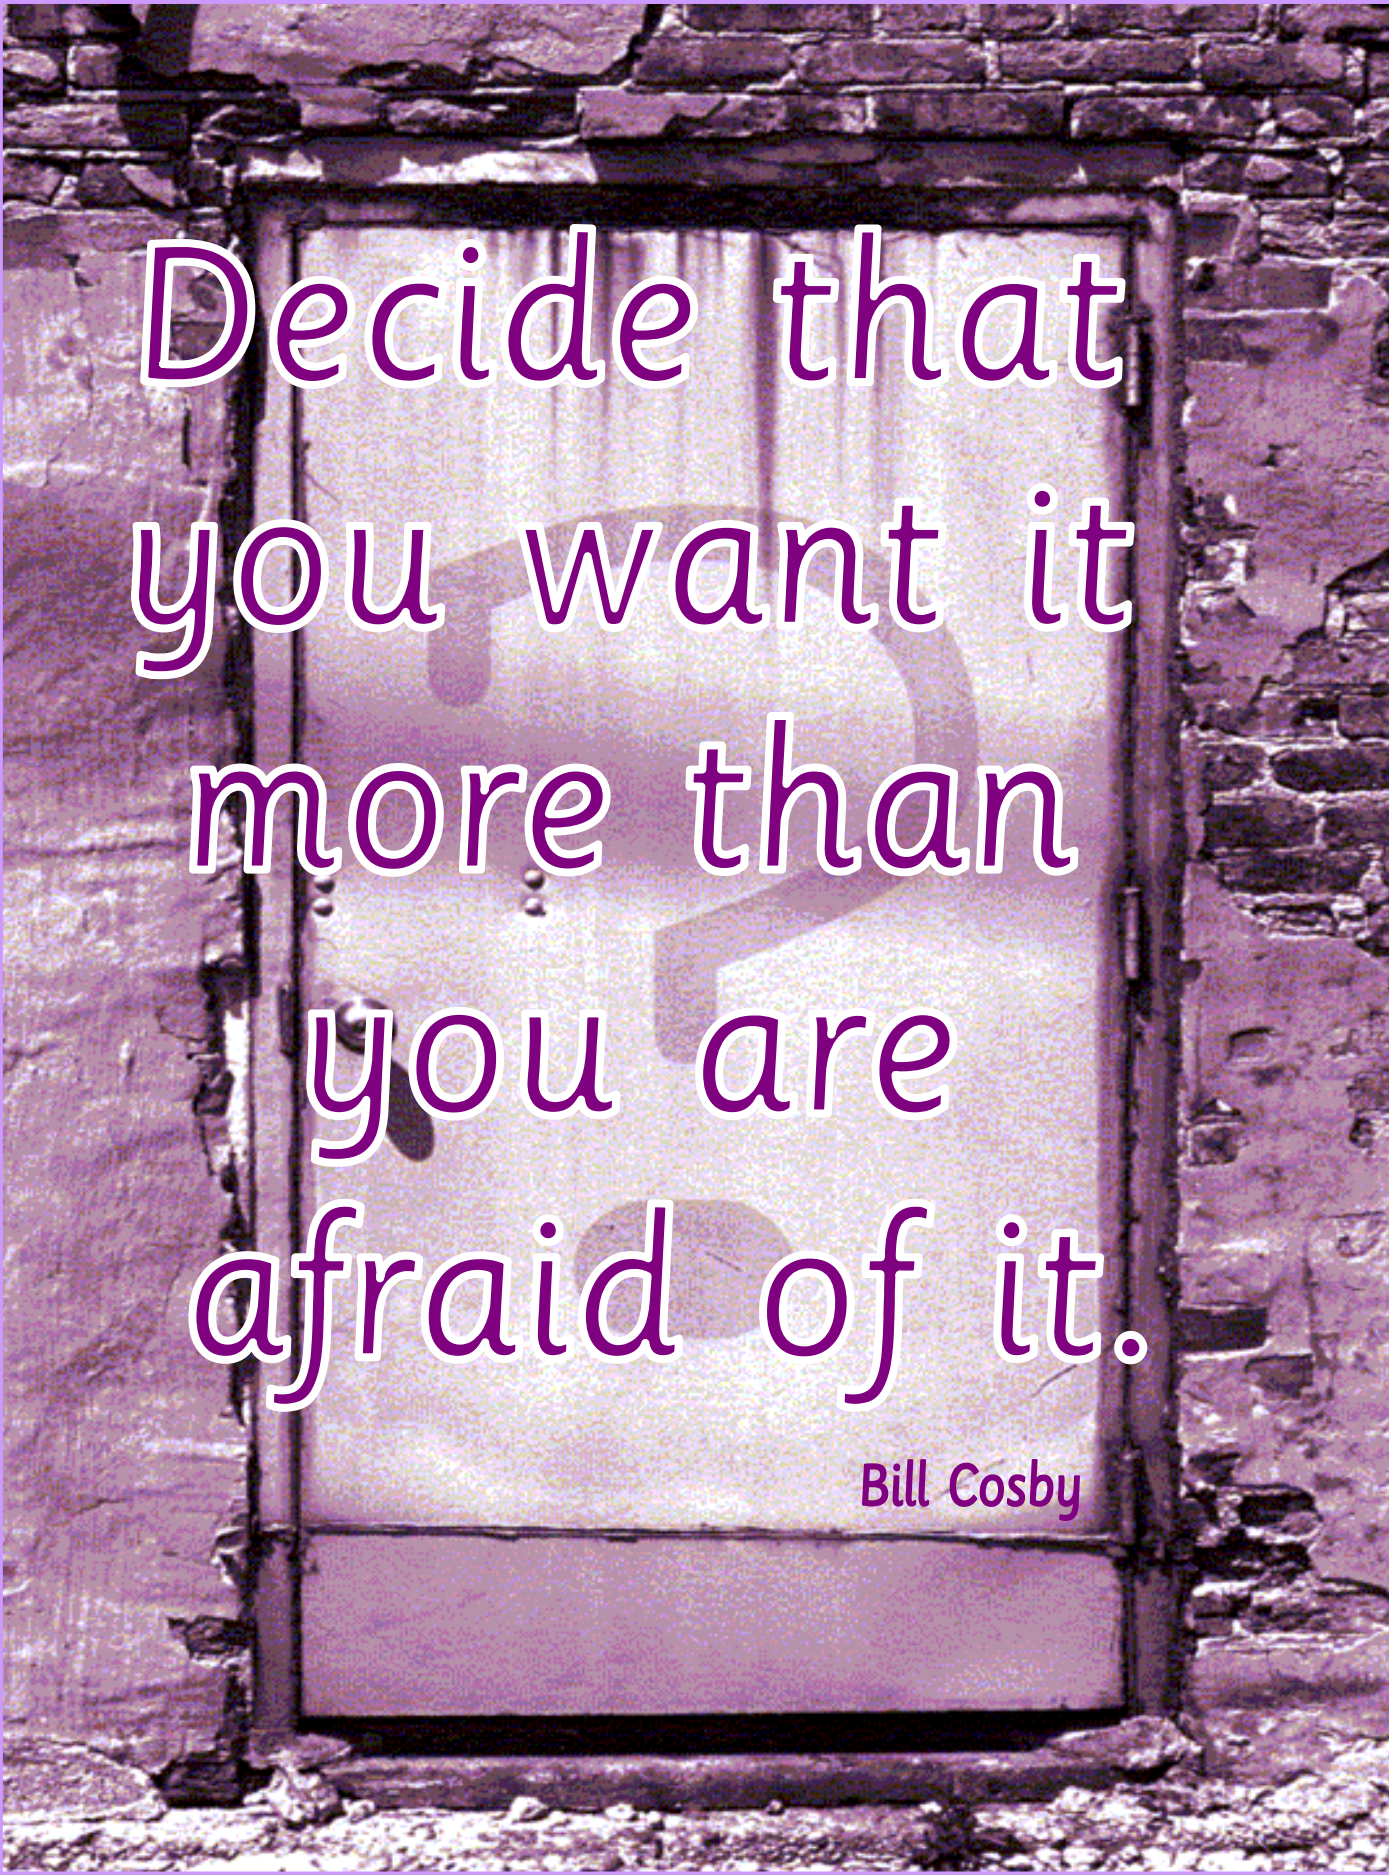

Saint Francis De Sales

A photograph of a red metal frame and a yellow chair in a snowy field with a stone building in the background. The red frame is a simple rectangular structure with a horizontal top bar and two vertical side bars. The yellow chair is a simple wooden-style chair with four legs and a backrest. They are positioned in a snowy field. In the background, there is a stone building with two windows. The entire image is framed by a blue border.

Facing it,
always facing it,
that's the way
to get through.
Face it.

Joseph Conrad

A photograph of a stone wall with a wooden door. A large shadow of a person standing in the doorway is cast onto the wall. The text is overlaid on the image.

Decide that you want it
more than you are afraid of it.

Bill Cosby

The image features a central rectangular frame with a dark brown, slightly distressed wooden border. Inside this frame is a vibrant blue sky filled with soft, white, wispy clouds. The frame is set against a larger, textured background of rough, light-brown stone or concrete. The entire composition is enclosed within a solid blue border. Overlaid on the sky portion of the frame is the text "No one ever got better by always getting it right." in a white, rounded, sans-serif font with a thin brown outline.

No one ever
got better
by always
getting
it right.

Never,
never,
never
give up.

Winston Churchill
